REBEL LASER PARTY

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The deposit for this party is £200. This comprises of £150 non returnable deposit and £50 held for damages. If the equipment is returned and undamaged by the end of the party, the £50 will be taken off with the non-refundable deposit from the remaining balance. Should any of the controllers be damaged or be missing at the end of the party, these will be charged at £25 each. Should any of the screens be damaged these will be charged at £50 each for a replacement to be purchased. Should the damage to either the equipment or fixtures be greater the value of the damage deposit, this will be retained in full and you will be billed separately for the remaining amount.

The Games on the Nintendo's will have appropriate age ratings for the group in for the party. We may have other titles but we will not allow the group to play these unless they are old enough. Your own equipment or games will not be allowed.

The Party Host will be there to ensure the players enter the correct laser tag games, maintain control over the play of the switch games, take food orders, distribute the food, and bring out the birthday cake lit and get the players singing.

Tips are always encouraged for the party hosts, but not mandatory.

Once booked, and deposit paid. We will send you out the party invites and further information on how the party will run on the day.

We ask that you know whether or not your players have any allergens, our staff will check but final decisions will come from you as to whether or not the player can have the food choice they have picked.

Lastly, no question is a silly question, if you have concern or issue, please do not hesitate to contact us.
